Council Plans Further Study Of Proposition

Solution of Two Needs Seen With Purchase Of Building

A recommendation of a special committee that the Central Grammar School at the Broadway-Middlefield road corner in Redwood City be acquired by the city for use as a city hall will be considered by the council at a special meeting next Monday night, it was decided at the council's regular meeting last night.

At the session next week, which will also see the proposed budget further considered, the council will ponder the statement of the committee that acquisition of the school would serve two definite housing necessities:

1. That of a city hall for the city of Redwood City.

2. That of the building of additional elementary school buildings.

Reason for the city's purchase of the property serving for both is that the amount yet to be determined paid for the building and lot would be used by the grammar school board to construct two new schools in residential sections on property less valuable from a monetary standpoint but in superior location and hence more valuable as school sites.

VALUED AT $138,000

The committee, which was composed of Councilmen James M. Eva and Louis Christensen, found that the appraised value of the Central school property grounds is $83,650. This is in addition to a value of $40,000 on the school building; $5000 on the frame structure on Jefferson avenue being used by the police department, and $350 on the garage on Middlefield road. The public library, situated on the same block, already is owned by the city.

The lot in question has a frontage on Broadway of 151 feet, on Middlefield road of 383 feet, and on Jefferson avenue of 119 feet. Value of the property per front foot is figured at $125 on Middlefield road; $300 for the Broadway-Middlefield road corner for 75 feet, and $250 for the remainder on Broadway.

The committee would remove the police department from its present headquarters, renting that structure. The upper floor in the building, it was considered, could be used as a community house, for Girl and Boy Scouts, and other organizations. The police department could either be moved into the new city hall, or into the old one, if it is desired to keep that structure for a public building.

Part of Mills' Estate Is Sold Near M.P. Depot

Sale of a portion of the old Edgar Mills estate across from the Southern Pacific depot at Menlo Park was revealed Monday in deeds filed here with County Recorder T. Clark Rice.

Emma Noel, Menlo Park realtor, purchased for $37,500 improved properties at Laurel street and Ravenswood avenue and on Oak Grove avenue, from Diana Langton, Robert Henry, Margaret Adeline and Charles Edgard Mills Brackenbury, and Florence Adelia Turnbull, all heirs of Edgar Mills residing at the present time in England.

Located on the property is the Park Military Academy, which it is understood will be sold by Miss Noel to Mr. and Mrs. Royal W. Park, proprietors of the school. The transaction, handled through the San Mateo County Title Company, was consummation of a deal virtually already complete through leases.

San Carlos Fire Chief Kills Three-Pointer

Captain Martin J. Cahill of the San Carlos Fire Department clicked over a three-point buck Sunday morning at Rapley's ranch, near La Honda, to be another of the local hunters who got meat on the opening day.

In the party with Cahill were Police Officer Joe Gravance and George Alvis, both of San Carlos. The trio had planned to bang away at 'em again today.

Jewelry Fraud Alleged; Father Sues Daughter

S. M. Attorney's Wife Named in Action On File Here

Fraud on the part of his own daughter was charged here Monday by a man suing to recover $8265 worth of jewelry.

The action was brought in the local superior court by George J. Consigny of Alameda county against Mrs. Albert R. Bradley, wife of an attorney living at 472 Edgewood road, San Mateo. She is the former Venita O. Consigny.

In the suit, filed through Atty. Henry J. Kleefisch of San Francisco, Consigny charges that while he was in an asserted weak and dependent condition in Los Angeles in December, 1923, his daughter, then unmarried, used her "influences, arts and persuasions" to "take advantage" of him and lead him to sign away his property.

RETAINS GEMS

Since that time, Consigny claimed, he had until November, 1936, been in a condition that rendered himself "mentally incompetent," but last year recovered his faculties.

His daughter, however, Consigny asserted, has refused to return the jewelry, which was listed as including one platinum cluster ring, a 12-diamond ring, a two-diamond brooch, a two-stone plated ring, and a pair of platinum diamond earrings, the latter two items valued at $2890 and $3000, respectively.

Either return of the items or payment of their full value, along with $5,372.25 for their use during the past 13 years, $2000 for asserted re-setting of the stones and $2000 additional for other costs and filing the suit, was demanded by Consigny.

NO MONEY PAID

In the suit, Consigny charged that following his falling into a "dependent condition" late in 1923, his daughter came to him and made him think that unless he signed over his jewelry to her his creditors would take it from him.

One month after she had assertedly persuaded him to sign the agreement, the suit declared, Consigny turned over the gems to her. No money transaction was made, he claimed.

A.W.O.L. PATIENT FOUND

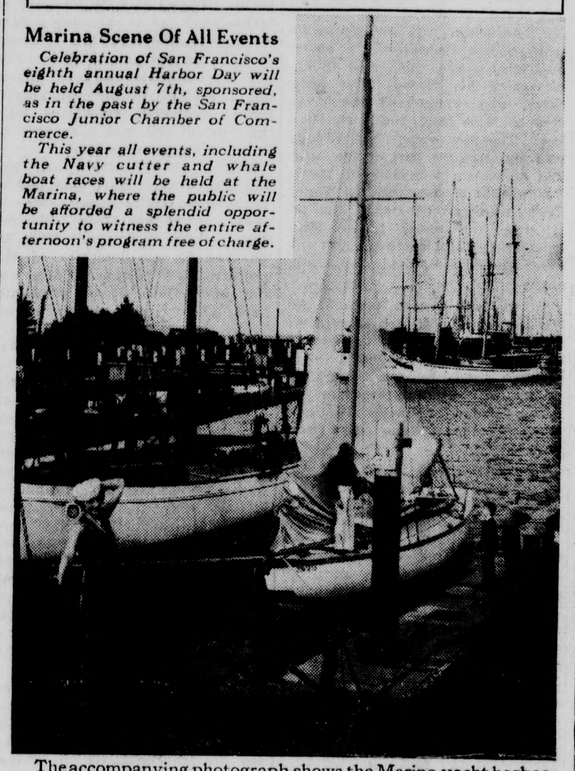
Missing from the Veterans' Administration Facility in Menlo Park since Sunday morning, Mrs. Josephine Ervin was found in San Francisco. The patient was returned today unharmed, the sheriff's office said they were told.

S.F. ANNUAL HARBOR DAY CELEBRATION AUG. 7

Marina Scene Of All Events

Celebration of San Francisco's eighth annual Harbor Day will be held August 7th, sponsored, as in the past by the San Francisco Junior Chamber of Commerce.

This year all events, including the Navy cutter and whale boat races will be held at the Marina, where the public will be afforded a splendid opportunity to witness the entire afternoon's program free of charge.



The accompanying photograph shows the Marina yacht harbor, scene of much activity as yacht and cruiser owners prepare for the big day's events.

CIVIL SERVICE UNDER STUDY OF REDWOOD CITY COUNCILMEN

Merit System Urged for Public Employes; Committee Plans Inquiry

Redwood City soon will be seriously considering civil service for all its public employes.

This was made clear at city council meeting Monday after City Councilman James M. Eva announced that "in a month" he planned to make definite proposals for the city to adopt a civil service plan.

Eva, long an advocate of such a measure, has been studying civil service plans in other communities.

As a result of his announcement, the council through Mayor Paul A. McCarthy appointed the mayor himself and Councilman Louis Christensen to act as a committee with Eva to study the merits of civil service and report back to the council.

The subject was broached with introduction of the salary ordinance, which restored the balance of pay cuts taken by city employes during the depression and fixed several other employes' salaries at new scales. Under its terms, policemen now receive $1920 to begin with, getting a $60 annual increase until the maximum of $2100 is reached. Firemen begin at $1980, and go to $2100 except for the assistant chiefs, who receive $2160, and the deputy chief, $2280. Other salaries fixed in the ordinance included fireman-electrician, $1980 as starter, $2100 as maximum; assistant city engineer, $2400; suveyor's assistant, $2400; city manager's secretary, $1200; water department billing clerk, $1320; recreation director, $700; two assistants, $50 monthly for three months.

Three Bucks Killed In Alves Ranch Hunt

First reported deer kill of the 1937 season which opened Sunday found an eleven-man party taking three bucks, from 100 to 125 pounds, out of the Alves ranch at San Gregorio before 8 o'clock in the morning.

Included in the party were Bill Alves, Tony Alves, Ray Alves Jr., Raymond Medina, Charles Danz, George Abel, William Loty, Oran Brown, Joe Garcia, Melvin Garcer and Joe Denice.

United Air Lines Improves Night Run

United Air Lines will increase its coast-to-coast sleeper plane service within two weeks to three round trip flights nightly, S. A. Stimpson, district traffic manager, announced today.

Stimpson said that two week's operation of the three-stop cost-to-coast sleepers over the mid-continent airway had indicated sufficient patronage will be available for tripling sleeper plane service.

The company will also continue to operate daylight trans-continental trips.

CHILD'S LEG BROKEN

DALY CITY, Aug. 5.—Leona Gilbrech, 9, of Daly City, suffered a broken leg here last night when she was struck by a machine driven by George H. DeHoff of San Francisco. He was not held.

Strings Removed From City Fund For Harbor Fete

So satisfied is the city council that the Redwood City Harbor Opening Festival September 10-12 is going to be a financial success as well as a benefit to the community that it removed all strings from its $1000 contribution Monday night and told the celebration committee, represented by Chairman Frank A. De Patta and Charles C. Lambert, that it could use all of the fund it needed.

Mayor McCarthy reported to the council that his personal observation was that the expenses of the festival were running less than had been anticipated and that the receipts were more.

LIGHTS TO BE UP

Following discussion, and requests by De Patta and Lambert that the former conditions—that a similar amount be donated by the county through the board of supervisors—be removed, the council voted so to do, on motion of Councilman Jones, second of Councilman Fletcher.

In connection with the festival, plans for which are rapidly nearing completion, it was announced that the colored Christmas lights would not only be in place for use during the festival, but that they would be up the week previous for the Sea Scout Regatta.

DANCE PERMIT GIVEN

Redwood City firemen will string the lights again, as they did last year.

In addition, they will install banners and decorations for the festival.

Permission was granted Redwood City Post 105 to sponsor a dance the night of September 11 in Foresters' Hall. The council stipulated that part of the profits should go to the festival committee and that this would be the only dance permitted except one proposed to be held in a street or the harbor warehouse by the festival committee itself.

Differentiates Two Projects

Breaking the silence which had marked his immediate attitude toward the controversy which raged after the bill to create a naval supply depot at Oakland had been recommended against by committee, Congressman John J. McGrath of San Mateo in letters to Mayors W. W. Hives of Burlingame and F. P. Simmen of San Mateo, copies of which were received Tuesday by The Tribune, explained further his request for an investigation of possible sites before establishment of the base.

In his letter to Simmen, McGrath declared that "Coyote Point is totally unsuited for the site of such a base as it lacks immediate access to deep water."

The base must be adjacent to major rail facilities and to deep water, McGrath pointed out.

NUMBER OF SITES

There are a number of such sites available, McGrath continued. "Some are located in San Francisco, some in Northern San Mateo county, and others at Sausalito and at Point Richmond. The House Naval Affairs Committee still has no evidence whatever as to what sites are available."

"I would be delighted to cooperate with Oakland and the East Bay area," McGrath added, "but I am not willing blindly to submerge the interests of the people to whom I am primarily responsible."

In his letter to Mayor Hives, the congressman blames a misunderstanding principally for the difference, pointing out that the naval supply depot is a different project from the naval air base slated for Alameda.

HAS BACKED ALAMEDA

McGrath pointed out, in fact, that he supported Alameda finally for the naval air base, because support of San Mateo county was thrown to that project, even though, in the congressman's belief, "Coyote Point would have been ideal for the location of a naval air base."

City-Owned Car Damaged, 3 Hurt In Wreck Here

Three persons were slightly injured Sunday night when cars operated by Edward Basher, 26, 828 Main street, and Alphonsus Ligouri, 53, Marsh Road, collided at 7:15 o'clock at the intersection of Brewster avenue and Alameda de las Pulgas, police reported.

Basher's car, traveling south on the Alameda, overturned after colliding with that being driven west by Ligouri, resulting in the injury of Basher and his two passengers, Lorraine Nygren, 9, 181 Grand street, and Vinita Butterfield, 31, 522 Maple street.

Miss Nygren suffered a blood clot on her scalp, and an injured hand, while Miss Butterfield had a lacerated right shin and abrasions to her right foot. Basher incurred abrasions and slight cuts on his left leg.

Ligouri, city employe and driving a car owned by the city, according to the police, was uninjured.

THREATEN TAX STRIKE

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 5 (AP) — Threat of a tax strike if the city and county budgets for the 1937-38 fiscal year are increased was voiced here by the taxpayers and consumers' council and the Long Beach Apartment House Owners' Association. The county's preliminary budget stands at $54,766,464, almost $10,000,000 higher than last year.

Freight Shed Site Recovery Asked in Suit

Hawes' Granddaughter Claims Railroad Violated Deed

An heir of Horace Hawes, owner before 1865 of the property on which the present Southern Pacific Railroad freight shed is located, has filed suit in superior court here against the railroad, seeking return of the property on the grounds that it is no longer used exclusively by the railroad as agreed in the original deed.

Eugenie H. Crabtree, Hawes' married granddaughter, residing now in San Francisco, who along with A. Porter Robinson, grandson, is allegedly the lone heir to the Hawes estate, is pressing the suit through Attorneys Tobin and Tobin of San Francisco.

ACTION ANTICIPATED

Citing terms of the agreement made between Hawes and the railroad in 1865, then known as the San Francisco and San Jose, the suit sets forth that only as long as the property is used by the railroad for its exclusive purpose does the agreement remain in effect.

These conditions have not been observed, it is claimed.

Although not mentioned in the suit, the leasing by the Shell Oil Company of one section of the lot at Perry street and Broadway for a service station, is believed to be the asserted violation.

The original deed included all property along the west side of the tracks from Broadway to the other side of the present freight shed, inclusive of Perry street, construction of which was allowed in the agreement.

Action by Mrs. Crabtree was not unexpected.

SETTLEMENT FORESEEN

It may culminate in an "out-of-court" settlement between the heirs and the railroad, under which the utility will buy the rights of the heirs and thus clear its title, it is believed.

The property then will be open to disposal as the railroad sees fit. It is expected that construction of a new freight shed south of the new depot, now under construction, or removal of the old shed to a new site, nearer the depot, will result.

Members of the city council, who are reported to have known three weeks ago that such a suit was pending, have intimated they will support whole-heartedly the railroad's side of the question.

MENLO PARK NEWS NOTES

For the sum of $37,500 the Edgar Mills estate, which is bordered by Laurel avenue and Ravenswood avenue, was sold this week to Miss Emma Noel, local real estate operator, who has had an interest in the realty for many years. The Edgar Mills family has owned the property for many years and at one time lived there, entertaining in regal splendor. It is one of the oldest estates on the peninsula, one of the original owners being Henry Meyer. It was one of the show places of the county in those days.

In the early eighties the place was leased to Mr. Gansel, German counsel at San Francisco. He entertained lavishly. Many gay parties were sponsored, the elite of San Francisco and the peninsula were guests. Gansel was a clever host, who spent vast sums in entertaining his friends. The Mills heirs, who transferred the property to Miss Noel, reside in England. The new owner has already sold the greatest part of the holding, on which is located the Menlo Park Military Academy, to Major Park, who has conducted the institution for many years. Boys from all parts of the peninsula and San Francisco attend the academy.

When deer season opened last Sunday many hunters from here sought the hills and mountains in search of the fleet-footed animals. To date none has been brought to town, to the disappointment of many who had sharpened their appetites for luscious venison steaks.

The engagement has been announced of Miss Gayle Bringham and Carl J. Shine, both of Woodside. The wedding is scheduled for the latter part of September. Mr. Shine was employed here by the Associated Oil Company until he was promoted to the Burlingame office. His mother, Mrs. George Shine of Woodside, was born and raised in Menlo Park. He is a Sequoia high school graduate and a young man of ability. His grandfather, the late Thomas Shine, was one of the early settlers of Woodside. The pretty bride-to-be has resided in Woodside for the past two years. Formerly she lived in Boise, Ida. She is a nurse by profession and is a very charming young woman.

At 5 o'clock last Sunday afternoon in the Church of the Nativity Miss Kathryn Maloney, the pretty young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Maloney, Pine street, was united in marriage to William E. Hawkins by the Rev. Father Thomas J. McKeon.

After the ceremony an informal reception was held at the home of the bride's parents before the couple departed on their honeymoon for Southern California. On their return Mr. and Mrs. Hawkins will reside in San Francisco. Mr. Hawkins is with the coast guard service at Point Bonita and is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Hawkins of North Fair Oaks. He and his bride are both graduates of Sequoia high school, where the romance began. The bride is now on the staff of St. Mary's hospital in San Francisco, where she received her nurse's training. Until recently she was on the staff of the Palo Alto Hospital.

The Menlo Circus Club will open the annual horse show tomorrow afternoon. All the horses for the big display are here and have been coming all week. A fine program has been prepared. The show promises to be the most attractive in the history of the club.

Sister Catherine Patricia, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. Kearney of Menlo Park, after spending a two-weeks' vacation here, has returned to her convent in the East. She left several years ago and this is her first visit to her birthplace. Before becoming connected with the convent she was a teacher in the local grammar school.

Mrs. C. E. Needham and her daughter, Nancy, have returned to their Menlo Oaks home after six weeks at Pacific Grove. Sharing their cottage there were Miss Ellen Ann Evans, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Evans of Atherton, and Miss Doris Rowe of Menlo Park, who attended summer school there.

Mrs. Martha Bernasque, Dist. Dep. Grand Pres. of Bonita Parlor No. 10, Native Daughters of the Golden West, and her staff of officers installed the officers of Menlo Parlor No. 211 Tuesday night. Geraldine Brown was deputy grand marshal and Dollina Rayer was past president. The following officers assumed office: President, Louise Murray; second vice president, Mary Worrell; financial secretary, Grace Loverich; recording secretary, Isabelle Weeden Lindquist; trustees, Mary Fisher and Hester Leach; marshal, Elois Rathje. The rest of the corps of officers will be installed when they return from their vacations.

The many friends of Deaconess Margaret will be sorry to learn that she is ill in St. Luke's Hospital in San Francisco. The deaconess did church work in Trinity Episcopal Church when she lived here some years ago. She is a cousin of William and Charles Weeden and Mrs. Abbie Weeden Driscoll.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Ryan are spending a week's vacation in Northern California.

Mrs. Peter Bush and her daughter, Dorothy, are spending their vacation at their summer home in the Santa Cruz mountains.

Mrs. Catherine Derry of Menlo Parlor No. 211 has been appointed on the extension of the order committee of the Grand Parlor in San Mateo county by Grand President Begley.

The Dominican Nuns of Corpus Christi Monastery of Menlo Park held a Day of Recollection, or Retreat, for the Catholic Daughters of America of the peninsula cities, yesterday. The exercises were conducted by the Rev. Father Brolan, S. J.

The exercises were followed by blessing of the statue of Our Lady of Pellevoisin, recently donated by the Messrs. Dorney of New York City in memory of their sister. The statue has been placed in the exterior garden of the monastery.

Hymns were sung and the act of consecration to the Blessed Virgin Mary followed. The benediction of the most blessed sacrament concluded the ceremonies.

Rhoda Girl, Chum Rescued As Wind Capsizes Skiff

What might have resulted in tragedy for two young University of California co-eds, one of them a graduate of Sequoia high school, turned two boys into rescuing heroes when the girls' 14-foot skiff overturned in San Francisco bay Monday.

The girls, Ruth Rhoda, 20, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Rhoda, formerly of 806 Arguello street, Redwood City, and her companion, Marge Bacon, 18, of Berkeley, borrowed a skiff built recently by Miss Rhoda's brother, Ralph.

They went for a sail in the Berkeley Yacht Harbor, but in the middle of their cruise the craft was lopped over in a gust of wind that sent the two adventurers into the water.

Jack Ehrhorne, 17, and Bob Haddow, 15, sailing a sloop, were nearby. As the girls held to the overturned skiff, the youths drew alongside, brought the soaked co-eds aboard and made for shore.

"Too much wind—not enough keel," explained Miss Rhoda afterwards, shivering in her water-soaked sailor's garb.

The Rhodas lived in Redwood City until about a year ago, when they moved to Berkeley. Ruth Rhoda has a sister, Marilyn, and three other brothers, George, James and John. All attended San Mateo Junior College, where the boys were football stars.

The first railroad west of the Mississippi was started in south Texas in 1852.

Construction Hits $558,362

Building totals in Redwood City for the first seven months of 1937 have already surpassed all of 1936, figures compiled by Building Inspector I. C. Drathman disclosed Tuesday.

Including $60,300 during July, the 1937 total stands at $558,362, compared with $552,956 at the end of last year. The figures this year are double those at the same time in 1936, when $278,701 was recorded at the end of July.

The past July also was the best since 1930, when $117,390 worth of new construction was started. It was only slightly ahead of July, 1936, however, Drathman pointed out, as $57,540 was added up then.

Statistics show that a sharp summer slump has set in. Monthly sums reached a new high in April, when $139,635 in new construction, most of it in small residences, was announced. Building strikes, the usual summer drop and high cost of building materials are given as reasons for the falling off.

Only 11 new houses were started in Redwood Citiy during July, $25,000 of the total arising from start of an addition to the California Pacific Title and Trust Company building here.

First and second quarter figures for this year were for the first quarter, $202,877; and second quarter, $295,185.

WATER FIRM HEADS NAMED

At the annual meeting of the Palo Alto Park Mutual Water Company in the Ravenswood School auditorium over the week-end, the following directors were elected for the coming year: B. N. Hill, president; C. Flint, vice president; W. M. Lynch, secretary-treasurer; L. H. Keinitz, and Matt J. Ramazane.

Road to Harbor Now Boulevard; Council Says So

It's been called Chestnut street, the Harbor road, the Cement Plant road, and just that blankety-blank rough road.

But in the future, the road leading from the Bayshore to Redwood City's new harbor—and the cement plant—is to be known as Harbor boulevard.

In fact, under terms of a move approved by the city council Monday night, the entire Chestnut street extension from Middlefield road to the harbor will be known as Harbor boulevard.

GIVEN TO CITY

Decision to designate the road with an official name came after the thoroughfare, recently voted into the city limits in the harbor land annexation election at which three votes were cast, was formally accepted from the County of San Mateo.

In asking the city to assume the road and its upkeep in the future, the county, in a letter signed by Executive E. A. Rolison, informed the city that it had appropriated $30,000 of gasoline tax funds for rebuilding of the road. In fact, reconstruction work, which will see the thoroughfare raised and eventually paved with concrete, has already begun under supervision of County Engineer U. S. Marshall.

The acceptance of the road brought up the old perplexing problem of what to call the stretch in polite society—and on official documents.

CHESTNUT ANOTHER STREET

After hearing City Manager C. L. Dimmitt explain that it could not very well be called Chestnut street because of the fact a right of way is owned and may eventually be used to extend Chestnut street from its present terminus at Middlefield road to the Bayshore, the council decided on the "Harbor boulevard" name, "in anticipation," to use the words of Mayor Paul A. McCarthy, "that when it is rebuilt and paved, it will be a boulevard."

Los Gatos Fetes 50th Year This Week-End

LOS GATOS, August 6 — Los Gatos will celebrate its fiftieth anniversary today and tomorrow with a Golden Jubilee celebration featuring an 8 o'clock pageant this evening, and fire works, street parades, dancing, nightball games and a fiesta program on Saturday.

Golf and tennis tournaments will be held at La Rinconada golf course and the city's high school. Radio stars from San Francisco will be on hand to furnish entertainment.

Tumble Down Stairs Kills Daly City Man

DALY CITY, Aug. 6—Victim of a mysterious fall down two flights of stairs in front of his home in Daly City, Sam Compagno, 29, died Monday after having been carried inside by his brother.

The brother, Joseph, told police he came home early Sunday morning to find Sam unconscious on the first landing of the long stairway. Carried inside and treated by a physician Compagno failed to rally and died shortly later. He had been drinking.

BURLINGAME BOY, 18, IS INSTANTLY KILLED IN THREE-CAR CRASH

Death rode San Mateo county highways for the first time in nine week-ends as a Burlingame youth was killed instantly Sunday in a three-car smash-up on El Camino Real in Burlingame, sending the county toll for 1937 to 30.

Samuel Hiland Holden Jr., 18, 1330 Cortez avenue, was the Burlingame victim. He was thrown head first onto the pavement as the car in which he was riding was struck at the Easton drive intersection by another driven by James L. Fee of San Francisco.

Richard Ray, 517 Second avenue, driver, and Robert and Lawrence Day, 1132 Balboa avenue, all of Burlingame, were others hurt in the car in which Holden was killed.

DRIVER QUESTIONED

Mack D. Fall, 433 Wisnon avenue, San Mateo, operator of the third automobile, and Jack Brogan, 18, 114 North Humboldt street, also San Mateo, his passenger, incurred minor injuries as Ray's machine collided with theirs as result of the collision with Fee.

MANY ENTERTAINMENTS MARK NEXT WEEK-END OVER STATE

For the week-end tomorrow and Sunday, August 7 and 8, events are being staged in every part of the state which will well repay those who attend them, according to R. E. Fisher, chairman of the travel stimulation committee of the state chamber of commerce.

San Francisco is celebrating Harbor Day on Saturday. The naval force will be in the harbor; a colorful marine parade, with over two hundred boats of all descriptions, power and sail boat races, life boat races, navy cutter races, and numerous other events promise to make this the most colorful Harbor Day that the junior chamber of commerce has staged.

At Menlo Circus, Atherton, from tomorrow until the 14th, the San Mateo County National Horse Show will be held. This annual event attracts visitors from all parts of the country. Four hundred championship horses will meet in spirited competition. There will be an exhibition of Belgian Draft Horses by E. G. Stinson, a spectacular military exhibition drill daily by the 11th U. S. Cavalry, stunt riding, fancy turn-out with all participants in costume, and other special features make this an outstanding show.

San Luis Obispo will hold its annual Governor's Day tomorrow. A reception luncheon, military parade and review will take place in the California National Guards Camp with some 15,000 of the 40th Division and Supplementary National Guard units passing in review.

At Ukiah, the 12th District Agricultural Association Fair will be held today, tomorrow and Sunday. It will include horse racing, a horse show and a display of fireworks on Sunday evening.

MERCED SETS FAIR

At Merced, the Thirty-Fifth District Fair will take place today, Saturday and Sunday, A district-wide Fair Queen Contest, racing, saddle and harness events and other entertainment features are scheduled.

At San Diego, the San Diego County Fair and Harness Race Meet will take place at Del Mar from Saturday the 7th, until Sunday the 15th.

Morticians Plan Inter-County Unit

A proposal for consolidation of the San Mateo County Funeral Directors Association with the Santa Clara county unit will be considered by San Mateo county morticians at their next meeting Tuesday night in Burlingame, with favorable action anticipated.

The San Mateo county undertakers were invited to amalgamate with the neighboring county's association at a joint meeting held Tuesday at the De Anza Hotel, San Jose.

Acceptance of the invitation is expected to be only a matter of form since the two counties are united in the district mapped out by the California Funeral Directors' Association and refusal to consolidate would result in non-recognition of the county unit.

Following the expected amalgamation, consideration will be given to the plan for adoption of uniform wage and hour agreements.

Speakers at Tuesday's meeting were C. C. DeYoung of Stockton, state association president, and Harold J. Blaine of Pasadena, president of the California Embalmers' Association.

Lewis Franklin represented the James Crowe Mortuary of Redwood City while Ray G. Tinney represented the local Layng & Tinney Funeral Home.

Door-to-Door Tax Survey Is Mapped

Reaching into Redwood City and all peninsula points, an intensive door-to-door tax survey of more than 40,000 professional and business houses in Northern California was underway by an increased force from the Bureau of Internal Revenue.

Full power to question employers, inspect books and office records is given to the inquisitors. Persons having only one employe, such as doctors with a single nurse and lawyers with but one secretary, come within the scope of the survey.

The chief purpose of the survey, according to Collector of Internal Revenue John V. Lewis, is to check the collection of social securtiy taxes.

3 More Counties Set Ban On Fireworks

Solano, Yolo and Sacramento counties are following the example of San Mateo county in banning the sale and use of fireworks.

Supervisors of these counties have indicated they will draft ordinances similar to one already in effect here and in the city of Sacramento, allowing pyrotechnic displays only with the consent of authorities.

San Mateo county's fireworks ban has been in effect for two years. It was strictly enforced this year and resulted in the quietest Fourth of July the peninsula has ever known, with few fires or injuries reported.

COAST COUPLE WED

Married Tuesday in Reno were George L. Biagini, 22, and Edith Tarvey, 18, both of Half Moon Bay, the Associated Press reported from Nevada.

OH! OH! REDWOOD CITY IS SINKING

But Don't Worry, Only Four Inches Yearly

SO SAYS GEODETIC SURVEY OFFICER

Redwood City is sinking, folks.

For this statement, you can take the word of Commander R. R. Lukens, inspector in charge of the San Francisco field station of the United States coast and geodetic survey.

In a speech before a San Jose service club Tuesday, Lukens said that the area bounded roughly by Redwood City, Edenvale, Cupertino and Newark is sinking at a rate up to four inches each year.

The commander said that geodetic studies have indicated that pumping of ground water from this area has dried out clay underlying the land, and the resultant shrinkage causes the drop in level.

San Jose, for example, has sunk more than five feet in the past 25 years, the officer stated.

An area approximateing 200 square miles at the south end of San Francisco bay is involved in the sinking, according to Lukens.

It was to prevent such drying out, and to raise the underground water levels, that the system of water conservation dams and percolation projects was constructed on the west and south sides of the valley in the past three years.

GOECKENS ARRIVE HOME

L. H. Goecken of San Mateo, chairman of the county's health and welfare board, was home today from a month's tour of the East with his wife and family. The party traveled through Canada, New England, New York and returned yesterday by way of Washington, D. C., and the Middle West.

Menlo Park Boy, 7, Struck By Machine

Struck by an automobile while playing on the highway in Menlo Park today, Carl Hensley, 7, was treated at the Palo Alto Hospital for a broken nose and facial cuts. An examination is being made to determine if he is suffering more serious injuries.

Truckload of Loot Taken From Road Construction Job

What must have been a full truckload of loot was the object of a search being made today by San Mateo county sheriff's officers and San Francisco police.

A gasoline engine, electric drill, generator, 30 horsepower electric motor, hydraulic jack, crankcase, two truck radiators and various welder's tools were reported stolen by unidentified burglars from the firm of Granfield, Farrar and Carlin, contractors working on the Ocean Shore highway.

47 Easterners Get Taste of Sun Here

Forty-seven boys and girls from New York City and vicinity have enjoyed California sunshine and sports this week on the peninsula, where they have established headquarters at the Menlo School and Junior College.

The group is supervised by Mrs. Leonard Boley, who is conducting a 60-day pleasure tour.

Already visited have been Chicago, the Grand Canyon, Colorado Springs, and Los Angeles. Later the tourists will move to San Francisco and then take a boat through the Panama Canal on their homeward jaunt. Swimming, bicycling, sightseeing and no studies occupy the tourists.

Rosenberg Family Wins $3500 Monthly

Petition by Mrs. Gussie Rosenberg for a family allowance of $3500 monthly from the estate of her husband, the late Morris Rosenberg, was granted here Monday in the court of Superior Judge Maxwell McNutt.

Rosenberg died September 25, 1935, in Paris, leaving an estate valued at nearly $700,000. Mrs. Rosenberg and her daughter, June, 15, reside at 433 Arroyo road, Hillsborough. The allowance was granted pending final settlement of the will.

Ramsey Potts, flaxen-haired Memphis tennis star, is an honor student at the University of North Carolina.

Homicide Count Filed Again James L. Fee

Charging negligent homicide, a complaint was signed Tuesday by Mack D. Fall against James L. Fee of San Francisco, driver involved in a three-way automobile collision Sunday that brought death to Samuel Hiland Holden Jr., 18-year-old Burlingame youth.

Fall, residing at 433 Wisnon avenue, San Mateo, was driver of the second car and Richard Ray, 517 Second avenue, Burlingame, was operator of the machine in which Holden was killed. The accident occurred on El Camino Real in Burlingame.

EXTORTION CHARGED

WASHINGTON, Aug. 5 (AP) — J. Edgar Hoover disclosed here that federal agents had arrested Wilbur Rothar of New York in connection with an attempt to extort $2000 from George Palmer Putnam for the safe return of his missing aviatrix wife, Amelia Earhart.

CLEAN FALSE TEETH NEW EASY WAY
NO Brushing — Recommended By Dentists Approved By Good Housekeeping Bureau
Just drop a little Stera-Kleen powder in a glass of water. Leave your false teeth or bridges in it while you dress or overnight. No need to brush. Simply rinse and your plates are fresh and clean—clean where the brush can't reach.
Stera-Kleen removes blackest stains, tartar, film and tarnish. Ends bad taste and smell. Makes dull teeth look like new — smooth, cool — comfortable. The discovery of Dr. L. W. Sherwin, eminent dentist. Approved by Good Housekeeping. Ask your druggist for Stera-Kleen today. Money back if you are not delighted. © 1936, P. & B. Co.
